Required Format for E-1 Visa Renewal

Tab A
Table of Contents and Cover Letter
Please provide a cover letter describing how the company and the beneficiary qualify for E-1 status. This letter should address all the requirements for E-1 visa eligibility which are described in depth in U.S. Department of State Foreign Affairs Manual (9 FAM 402.9) and require the applicant to show:

- That the requisite treaty exists (9 FAM 402.9-4(A));
- That the individual and/or business possesses the nationality of the treaty country (9 FAM 402.9-4(B));
- That the activities constitute trade within the meaning of the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 101 (a) (15) (E) (9 FAM 402.9-5(B));
- That the trade is substantial (9 FAM 402.9-5(C));
- That the trade is principally between the United States and the treaty country (9 FAM 402.9-5(D));
- That the applicant, if an employee, is destined to an executive/supervisory position or possesses skills essential to the firm’s operation in the United States (9 FAM 402.9-7(B)). For essential employees, please include evidence that the employee had the essential skills that the enterprise urgently needs, as well as the projected duration of this essentiality. You may also explain why the enterprise was unable to find a qualified U.S. citizen or Legal Permanent Resident to fill the position; and
- That the applicant intends to depart the United States when the E-1 status terminates (9 FAM 402.9-4(C)).

Ownership
The application must demonstrate that nationals of Belgium own at least 50% of the business. U.S. dual citizens or Legal Permanent Residents who hold Belgian nationality do not qualify for this determination. Please highlight the relevant sections in every document provided as evidence, particularly if ownership has changed since the previous application. Evidence can include, but is not limited to:

- Articles of Incorporation (for corporations) or Organization (for LLCs) for the U.S. business or other similar documents for US business;
- Share certificates and operating agreements (as applicable), share ledgers, stock certificates or other applications to confirm ownership;
- If the U.S. based business is a subsidiary or affiliate of a foreign corporation, provide their relevant incorporation and ownership documents (legal evidence e.g. Belgian Monitor, shareholder register...) for the business clearly showing the percentages of ownership of the ultimate owners;
- Color copies of the bio data pages of the passports of the owners of the ultimate parent company;
- If the firm has several owners or subsidiaries or if the chain of ownership includes intermediary entities, please include the following (as applicable):
  - An organization chart with names showing the full ownership structure of the entity;
  - Legal evidence (Belgian monitor, shares certificates, shareholder register...) of instances of ownership within that chain;
  - Photocopies of the biographical data page of the owners’ passports and the ownership percentage of each unit holder of the definitive parent company;
- If the firm is publicly traded with many shareholders (none of which own more than 50%) please also include:
  - A written declaration authorized by a corporate official stating all of the stock exchanges on which the firm is traded;
  - A copy of recently issued trading information concerning the nationality of the stock’s owners;
  - If the firm is an incorporated entity outside of the U.S., include a chart of ownership of the business and a certificate of existence/registration from the state/province in which the Please assemble your package according to these guidelines. If the application is incomplete, a U.S. Embassy Visa Section team member will contact the principal applicant and/or legal representative for submission of documents. Do not include brochures or other miscellaneous information that do not contribute to the value of your case. We evaluate many applications monthly. Please think lean, and demonstrate your business prowess.
